

Improve your global customer experience and reduce costs by using LinguistNow™

"LinguistNow has both accelerated and simplified our translation processes. We can export content to be translated and import it back into Oracle RightNow without any manual work on our side. LinguistNow has made our organization more efficient, has reduced our time to market and has already saved us tens of thousands of dollars."

"The ability to send and receive our content via LinguistNow Help decreases our effort significantly and allows us to focus on other tasks."
